

ELLISFIELD PARISH COUNCIL

WEBSITE ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

This website is run by Ellisfield Parish Council. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using just a keyboard
- navigate most of the website using speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)

We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand.

AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible is this website?

We know some parts of this website aren't fully accessible:

- you can't modify the line height or spacing of text
- some PDF documents aren't fully accessible to screen reader software
- you can't skip to the main content when using a screen reader
- there's a limit to how far you can magnify the map on our 'contact us' page
- some tables do not have row headings.
- some documents have poor colour contrast
- some images do not have image descriptions
- some heading elements are not consistent
- there maybe some 'click here' links
- there may be some pages where html isn't perfectly formed such as stray end tags

Ellisfield Parish Council continues to strive to improve content accessibility.

What to do if you can't access parts of this website

If you need information on this website in a different format use the details on our contact us page. We'll consider your request and get back to you in 15 working days.

Please tell us the URL of the content you require.

Reporting accessibility problems with this website

We're always looking to improve the accessibility of this website. If you find any problems that aren't listed on this page or think we're not meeting accessibility requirements, contact the clerk.

Enforcement procedure
